

O sweet delight

Thomas Campion

O sweet de-light, O more than hu-man bliss, With her to live that Such love as this the gold-en times did know, When all did reap, yet

5

ev-er lov-ing is! To hear her speak whose words so well are none took care to sow. Such love as this an end-less sum-mer placed, That she by them, as they in her, are graced; Those looks to view that makes, And all dis-taste from frail af-fec-tion takes. So lov'd, so blest in feast the view-er's eye, How blest is he that may so live and die!

10

15

my be-lov'd am I, Which till their eyes ache, let iron men en-vy.